THE LAWYERS' TRAVEL SERVICE APPOINTS
MARCIA AMOYE CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
AFTER YEAR OF TREMENDOUS GROWTH

New York, November 20, 2006 - The Lawyers' Travel Service, the 11th largest corporate travel management company in the United States, announced today the promotion of Marcia Amoye to Chief Operating Officer, a newly created position within the company. This appointment is a reflection of The Lawyers' Travel Service's tremendous business success over the past year, having grown over $50 million in new business by the third quarter in 2006.

Ms. Amoye joined The Lawyers' Travel Service as Senior Vice President of Client Solutions in early 2006. Over the course of the past year, Ms. Amoye successfully led the creation and development of the Client Solutions Group, which manages relationships with The Lawyers' Travel Service's over 300 clients. This year alone her team implemented 31 new accounts. In her new role at The Lawyers' Travel Service, Ms. Amoye will bring together the Operations and Account Management teams to work seamlessly and transparently for the benefit of The Lawyers' Travel Service's clients.

"Marcia has done an outstanding job this past year at The Lawyers' Travel Service," commented Paul Metselaar, Chairman and CEO. "She has brought vision, acumen and excellent judgment together to create an exceptional team. We are thrilled to have someone with Marcia's level of experience as our COO."

Previously, Ms. Amoye was a General Manager at Carlson Wagonlit Travel where she was responsible for strategic planning, customer retention and profitability for some of the firm's key clients. Marcia was also with TQ3 Travel Solutions, a division of Maritz Inc. where she was Vice President, Operations and was responsible for customer satisfaction and client operations for one-third of the firm's business. In this role, Marcia supervised a staff of over 300 people in 14 different states. She has also held senior positions at McCord Travel Company, Rosenbluth International and Zenith Travel.
